FRIENDLY SONS OF ST. PATRICK

OF CENTRAL IOWA

Presidents 'Pint of View'

Hello Gentlemen,

I assume from watching the efforts we all go to raise funds for the less fortunate, that we are all blessed enough to have a full belly when we lay down at night. However, some folks are not as lucky.... So august is a great time for all of us to help those folks with very minimal effort!

One of the ways we have been able to help in the past is thru our "food bank of Iowa" meeting in august.

The board has decided it is time to resurrect that tradition once again by collecting food and money donations for them at our meeting.

In the past I have felt enjoyment going thru my cupboards to find actual food to donate but as the years have gone by it has been brought to my attention that a cash donation goes MUCH further than a food donation.

With the resources that they have available the food bank can serve up to 60 MEALS with just a mere $15 DONATION! That is incredible numbers and a goal we could never reach by just donating canned food, so this month I'm asking that rather than spending your time cleaning out your cupboards you should consider opening your wallets and joining me when you pay your monthly meeting dues (you gladly donate more than the $15 and/or you can also add a food donation if you feel the need to clean out your house a little!) in the hopes of making this a more sharing community.

So, I will see you all at our Monday august 9th meeting and let's show the food bank what we can do to help others in need!

Your honored president,
Tony "T-bone" Schmid

Wearin of The Grin'

- You can tell a lot about an Irish Woman by her hands.
For instance,
If they are wrapped around your neck- She's probably not in a good mood.
- An Irishman checks into a hotel for the first time in his life and goes up to his room. Five minutes later he calls the desk and says, "Ya have given me a room with no exit. How do I leave?"
The desk clerk says, "Sir, that's absurd. Have you looked for the door?"
Paddy replies "Well, there's one door that leads to the bathroom. There's a second door that goes into the closet. And there's a door I haven't tried, but it has a 'do not disturb sign on it."
- An Englishman, a Scotsman and an Irishman wander into a little old pub in Kildare. They each ask the barman for a pint of Guinness. After the pints are placed onto the bar, three bluebottles drop into each man's freshly poured pint. The Englishman pushes his pint away in disgust and orders up another. The Scot reaches in and plucks the fly out. The Irishman reaches in, picks the fly out, holds it up close to his face and shouts, "Spit it out you little bastard."
- It was a cold Friday evening when the doorbell rang at Mrs. Molloy's house. When she answered the door, Pat Glynn, her husband's manager at the brewery, stood on the doorstep.
'Pat. Hello. Where's my husband? He should have been home from work 3 hours ago?'
The man sighed. 'I'm sorry to be the one to tell you this, Mrs. Molloy, but there was an accident over in the brewery. Your husband fell into a vat of Guinness and drowned'.
'Oh my God' she replied. 'Please tell me it was quick?!' 'Well... no. It wasn't. He climbed out 4 times to take a piss'.
- An Irishman was in New York patiently waiting to cross a busy street. There was a traffic cop manning the crossing.
The cop stopped after a few minutes and told those waiting to cross the road, 'Okay pedestrians', he said, 'Let's go'.
The Irishman stood waiting, growing more and more frustrated. After five minutes he shouted to the cop, 'Here! The pedestrians crossed ages ago – when's it time for the Catholics?!'
